

HERTFORDSHIRE PHILHARMONIA

The Hertfordshire Philharmonia is a Symphony Orchestra created with the joint aims of bringing high quality, accessible music to Hertfordshire and providing a showcase for some of the county's finest musicians. As an independent orchestra working with a number of guest conductors we aim to produce imaginative programs bringing together both standard and more unusual works in the orchestral repertoire.

If you are an experienced orchestral player and are interested in playing with us, or if you would like more information about Hertfordshire Philharmonia, please contact the secretary (email: info@hertphil.org.uk) or Sheila Cox (01727-857827 or email tickets@hertphil.org.uk).

In addition to our own concert season the orchestra is hired by other organisations for a variety of performances. Please contact the secretary or Sheila as above if you are interested in hiring us.

We also rely on the generous support of donations from Friends of the Orchestra. Friends contribute £30 or more per year which, for example, enables us to perform with a range of talented emerging soloists, or to hire more interesting music. In recognition Friends are entitled to free programmes or reserved seats. If you would like to become a Friend of the Orchestra, or to be involved with us in any other way, please contact John Cox on 01727 - 857827.

Members of our 100 Club pay £5 a month or £60 per year to enter into three prize draws per year, with cash prizes of up to £100. Details are available from 100club@hertphil.org.uk. 100 Club members are recognised as Friends of the Orchestra.

Hertfordshire Philharmonia

Some extracts from the local press

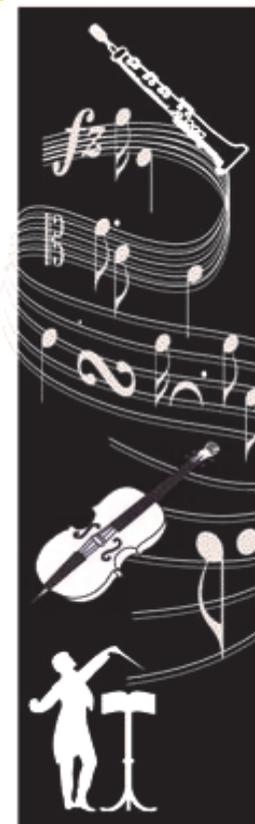

“The orchestra’s playing under the baton of Lev Parikian was iridescent—wonderfully sensitive to the colours and images of the music ”

“Right across the orchestra there was excellent musicianship including oboes and flutes and the fine brass section as well as it’s extremely “together” strings.”

“..the saxophone playing at the heart of this work was outstanding and the Swan Lake suite had even more to offer with the stunning harp and violin duet in the fourth section and an excellent trumpet performance in Danse Napolitaine..”

“The Herts Philharmonia is an orchestra ideally suited to the demands of such an emotionally charged work with all sections of the orchestra contributing to the wide palette of orchestral colour”

“The whole evening was an exhilarating experience. The audience was transported by the music to another place and another time”
