

HERTFORDSHIRE PHILHARMONIA

The Hertfordshire Philharmonia is a Symphony Orchestra created with the joint aims of bringing high quality, accessible music to Hertfordshire and providing a showcase for some of the county's finest musicians. As an independent orchestra working with a number of guest conductors we aim to produce imaginative programs bringing together both standard and more unusual works in the orchestral repertoire.

If you are an experienced orchestral player and are interested in playing with us, or if you would like more information about Hertfordshire Philharmonia, please contact the secretary (email: info@hertsphil.org.uk) or Sheila Cox (01727-857827 or email tickets@hertsphil.org.uk).

In addition to our own concert season the orchestra is hired by other organisations for a variety of performances. Please contact the secretary or Sheila as above if you are interested in hiring us.

We also rely on the generous support of donations from Friends of the Orchestra. Friends contribute £30 or more per year which, for example, enables us to perform with a range of talented emerging soloists, or to hire more interesting music. In recognition Friends are entitled to free programmes or reserved seats. If you would like to become a Friend of the Orchestra, or to be involved with us in any other way, please contact John Cox on 01727 – 857827.

Members of our 100 Club pay £5 a month or £60 per year to enter into three prize draws per year, with cash prizes of up to £100. Details are available from 100club@hertsphil.org.uk. 100 Club members are recognised as Friends of the Orchestra.

Hertfordshire Philharmonia

A few extracts from the local press

"From the opening notes on the flute the entire performance was a complete delight as the players

"The work is not one to be tackled by the faint hearted and Lev Parikian's interpretation was solid and thorough with

"The overture opens with an excellent fanfare which was expertly performed by the orchestra's brass sections before moving on to luscious sections for woodwind and brass and exciting string passages all of which were excellently performed."

"the work.. is one which demands good musicianship from those performing it. And that is just what it got from members of the Herts Philharmonia under guest
